Featuring: Mel Farrell and Emma Grimwade These creators of “Mum to Mum” understand only too well how hard it is being a new parent. Emma has four gorgeous children, and Mel has two! Understanding how hard it is to read a mountain of baby books whilst sleep deprived, the girls decided a visual guide in the form of a DVD would build confidence and empower both mums and dads in an entertaining and informative manner.

Note: This series provides valuable information and insight that transcends geographic and cultural borders. You should note that this was produced in Australia, where many items are called by different names, for example: Pram = Stroller, Cot = Crib, Nappie = Diaper, Dummie = Pacifier. There are others, but the general point and advice is clear. Since Australia is on the Metric System, you'll also notice references to measurements and temperature are in Centimeters and Celsius.

FORMAT: PAL – All Regions (will play on most DVD players) AU Rating: E – for everyone
